ABOUT US

MAHIRA GROUP- a business entity with a difference. An organization that places personal integrity over everything, Mahira Group strives to do every business in different segments with a sense of purpose that is beyond commercial transaction.

The group of people span over number of industries; namely, A luxedget(luxury in budget) real estate business focused on delivering complete value by fulfilling promises and expectations, and A construction business, far more than just buildings, we see property in terms of its larger context, whether we are regenerating forgotten parts of the city or reviving local communities. On every project, we consider possibilities such as community involvement and social inclusion, and strive to create places that invoke local pride
